

DAIMLER LEINFELDEN-ECHTERDINGEN - To develop the commercial site further an urban structure consisting of three individual buildings is created. Generously dimensioned green zones in the internal courtyards and the transparent ground floor connect the new central district square with public space. The ensemble of buildings provides workplaces for around 2000 people. Planned start of construction is 2018.

visuals: bloomimages

