

EGGENFELDENER STRAßE MUNICH - Eggenfeldener Courts will establish a compact district in an environment completely devoid of any connecting design plan. The structural bends of the buildings will create a protected and yet lively outdoor space for the four interconnected building plots. With a high-rise at the head, the courtyards are visually connected to the city centre.

Partner                      Markus Penell

