

FREIHAM NORTH MUNICH- This urban district centre on the western entry into Munich is the new focal point of Freiam. In terms of density and height the centre, with its several high points, forms a kind of urban identification mark. Attractive areas where people can communicate and spend time are grouped around an urban square with an open shopping and business area

