

MERSCHKAMP GARDEN RESIDENCES MÜNSTER 2006 - The Merschkamp estate is shaped by the garden city concept, yet with a unique Münsterland character. The brick architecture of the region's traditional farmhouses has been made contemporary. The development is a variation on the theme of the courtyard building, allowing it to join the larger context on the one hand, yet providing a maximum of individual outdoor space on the other.

