

GARTENSIEDLUNG MERSCHKAMP MÜNSTER 2006 - The Merschcamp housing development is determined by the idea of a garden city with a specific Münsterland character. A contemporary link is established to the brick architecture of the farm houses in the region. The quarter varies the theme of the courtyard house, which can be organised in larger contexts, while at the same time offering individual outdoor space of the highest quality.

